

Adam Rees

Adam Rees has worked with polymer clay for over twelve years to develop an amazingly beautiful application and has participated in many regional and national exhibitions. Adam has always been curious about the natural world, the organic processes and cycles of the animal and plant kingdoms. Adam's sculpture straddles the real, the surreal and the abstract.