

Wynter Jones

Wynter Jones graduated from the University of Utah in 2004 with a BFA in painting. Soon after, her work shifted into a period of exploring the properties of oil paint, mineral spirits and linseed oil. She became infatuated with creating textured, repetitive marks, saturated in layers of glaze. In the last year she has found a reborn interest in the human form, trying to impose and integrate it's commanding presence with moving plastic surface.
